BLM Management of Off-Road Travel in the National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska (NPR-A)

Outline

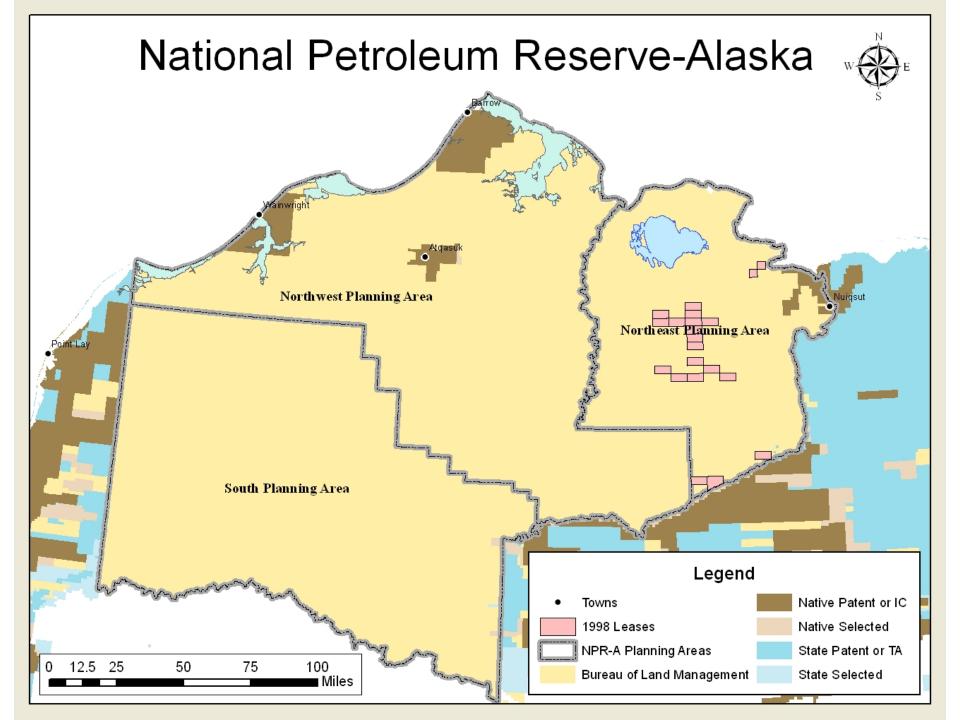

Rules

- Northeast NPR-A 1998
 Record of Decision
- Northwest NPR-A 2004
 Record of Decision
- Northeast NPR-A 2008
 Record of Decision

Challenges

- Projects in remote areas
- Project employee experience

Definitions

Off-road

- Not on constructed ice road
- Activities such as seismic, snow trails and overland tundra travel with equipment larger than a snowmachine

Heavy Equipment

 Typical construction equipment, including 4x4 pickup, front-end loader, rock truck

Northeast 1998 ROD

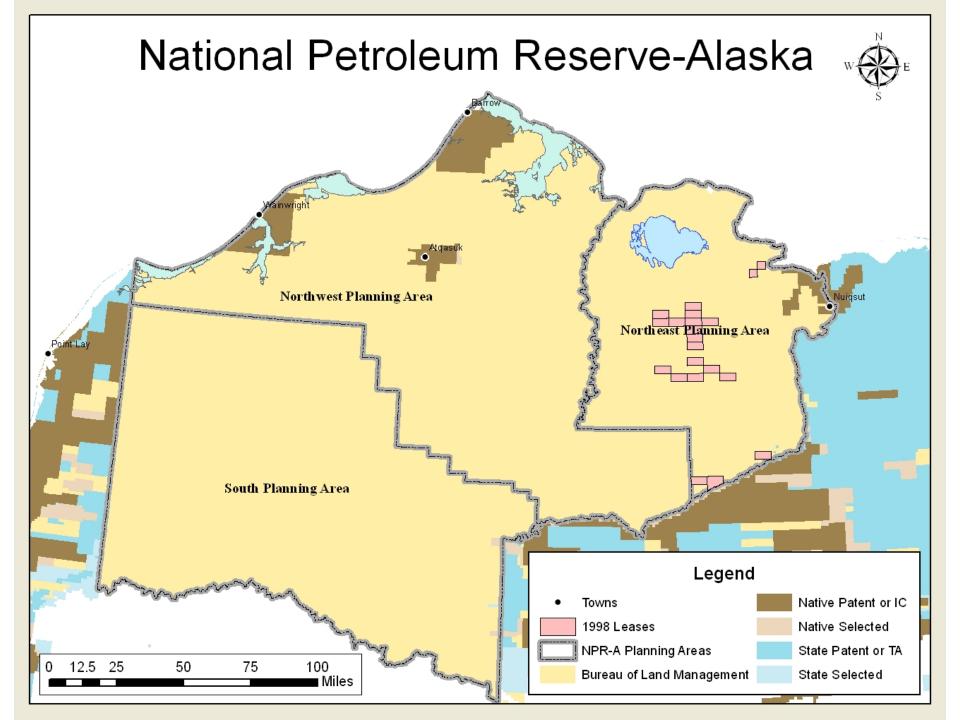

- Official TundraOpening andClosing
- 6/12 Rule: 6 inches of snow cover and 12 inches of continuous frost in the soil (ground hardness)

NW 2004 & NE 2008 ROD

- No Official Tundra Opening
- Officially closed tundra
- Performance based standards
- No 6/12 rule
- Project oriented
- Purpose is to encourage innovation

Challenges

- Remote Projects
 - Long distances
 - Time sensitive
 - Available water sources
 - Habitats

Challenges

- Project Employee
 Experience
 - Equipment
 - Habitats
 - Knowing the rules

Summary

- Project planning
 - Know the rules
 - Understand your responsibilities
 - Flexibility
- Project Implementation
 - Know the project area
 - Educated and informed project employees

